

DO's & DONT's of Human Elephant Conflict Mitigation

 for a living planet®

If you make the elephant angry it will cause more harm

 for a living planet®

If a man moves around drunk at night, elephants usually attack them

 for a living planet®

Dont brew liquor everywhere, otherwise the elephant will raid and cause damage.

 for a living planet®

Injured elephants are destructive, if you bother them they will cause more damage.

 for a living planet®

Dont block the elephant's route or corridor, that way both man and elephant will live in peace.

 for a living planet®

If the elephants are chased in a disciplined way then there will be less damage.
